

The Lewis and Betty Nolan Book Award

The Nolan Book Award provides recipients with up to $300 to broaden their intellectual horizons by purchasing significant books other than those required for courses.

Eligibility: full-time MSU undergraduate junior or senior English major in good standing.

Application deadlines: Fall--last weekday of September; Spring--last weekday of February.

Submission: Submit application at Department of English main office (Lee Hall 316) or mail to Nolan Book Award; Department of English; P.O. Box E; Mississippi State, MS 39762.

Name	MSU ID (on student ID card)
Current Address (campus/local)
Telephone	E-mail address
Number of Semester Hours Completed	GPA

Names and contact information for two or three references (at least one in the MSU Department of English):

Attach a statement of approximately 400-500 words in which you comment on the following: reasons for majoring in English, activities outside the classroom, future career and service interests, specific books or kinds of books you wish to purchase with Nolan funds, and the books' potential value for your future interests.