

EN4/6803

Drama since the 19th century

T – TR 9:30-10:45

Bentley

This course will focus on many of the major playwrights of the last 130 years in order to provide students with an overview of the most important dramatic movements that have occurred during that time, movements such as Realism, Theater of Ideas, Absurdism, and Theater of Cruelty, to name just a few. We will read plays by Ibsen, Beckett, Albee, Churchill, Wilson, Kushner, McCarthy and numerous others.

Text: The Norton Anthology of Drama, Volume Two: The Nineteenth Century to the Present.
New York: W. W. Norton, 2009.